RESIDENTIAL FOUNDATION CONDITION REPORT

This report must be filled out for the transfer of residential property located in a town determined by the Capitol Region Council of Governments to be affected, or potentially affected, by crumbling foundations and that was acquired by: (1) a political subdivision of this state; (2) a judgment of strict foreclosure; (3) foreclosure by sale; or (4) a deed in lieu of foreclosure. The owner or political subdivision shall make the disclosures below to the prospective purchaser of such property prior to the prospective purchaser's execution of any binder, contract to purchase, option, or lease containing a purchase option. The seller is required to credit the purchaser with the sum of $500 at closing if the seller fails to furnish this report (C.G.S. Section 20-327c).

A list of affected or potentially affected towns may be found at <http://crcog.org/crumbling-foundations/realestatemap/>.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

(A) Responsibilities of Real Estate Brokers

This report in no way relieves a real estate broker of the broker’s obligation under the provisions of section 20-328-5a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to disclose any material facts. Failure to do so could result in punitive action taken against the broker, such as fines, suspension or revocation of license.

(B) Statements Not to Constitute a Warranty

Any representations made by the seller on this residential foundation condition report shall not constitute a warranty to the buyer.

(C) Nature of Report

This report is not a substitute for inspections, tests, and other methods of determining the physical condition of the foundation. Prospective buyers may have a concrete foundation inspected by a licensed professional engineer who is a structural engineer for deterioration of the foundation due to the presence of pyrrhotite.

(D) Buyer’s Certification

The buyer is urged to carefully inspect the foundation and, if desired, to have the foundation inspected by an expert. The buyer understands that there are parts of the property, including the foundation, for which the seller has no knowledge and that this report does not encompass those parts. The buyer also acknowledges that the buyer has read and received a signed copy of this report from the seller or seller’s agent.
