IMPORTANT INFORMATION

(A) Responsibilities of Real Estate Brokers

This report in no way relieves a real estate broker of the broker’s obligation under the provisions of section 20-328-5a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to disclose any material facts. Failure to do so could result in punitive action taken against the broker, such as fines, suspension or revocation of license.

(B) Statements Not to Constitute a Warranty

Any representations made by the seller on this residential foundation condition report shall not constitute a warranty to the buyer.

(C) Nature of Report

This report is not a substitute for inspections, tests, and other methods of determining the physical condition of the foundation. Prospective buyers may have a concrete foundation inspected by a licensed professional engineer who is a structural engineer for deterioration of the foundation due to the presence of pyrrhotite.

Buyer's Certification

The buyer is urged to carefully inspect the property and, if desired, to have the property inspected by an expert. The buyer understands that there are parts of the property for which the seller has no knowledge and that this report does not encompass those parts. The buyer also acknowledges that the buyer has read and received a signed copy of this report from the seller or seller's agent.
