It's that time again: Growers Markets in the MetroABQ!

Summer is nearly upon us...I'm thrilled that the very robust MetroABQ Growers Markets--spread liberally throughout the greater Metro area--are finally back, and apparently better than ever. See the Growers Markets List on pg 2.

These Growers Markets can satisfy the healthy in you throughout the week, providing almost anything you might need, directly from the farm/dairy/fromagerie/bakehouse/candleshop/sapnerie to you.

I'm looking forward to custard Canneles from one of the most artistic bakehouses in the Metro--The Burque Bakehouse--run meticulously for years by Sara & Chris. Never heard of a Cannele? Now you have --stop by!

This year there are more farm-fresh fruit & vegetable stands than ever. My perennial favorite is Red Tractor Farm. Always abundant, fresh from the morning, tons of variety & scrumptiously tasty...

Again: you can find almost anything in the MetroABQ: An amazing--and unassuming--Growers Market find is Nocco, a hand-made pasta company that is not afraid to be creative. I love her new Cavatelli Pasta: they look like little seahorses and the pasta is made with just a little ricotta cheese...melts in the mouth...I can't find a website for Nocco, so I linked to Hartford Square, a Downtown bistro that sells Nocco Pasta.

The Growers Markets are here... see you there!

The MetroABQ is a fantastic place! Where do you want to be?

What a great year so far! I've helped 17 sellers and buyers sell their homes this year, and I currently have 16 properties listed For Sale.

A fantastic new tool I love is the Matterport 3-D Virtual Walking Tour. With a click of the arrow keys, you can maneuver throughout a home, around corners and in-&-out of rooms as if you are there. Click on the Matterport link to the right to view current 3-D Tours.
